CM Rekha inaugurates new school building in west Dehi

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE
■ New Delhi

Delhi Chief Minister Rekha Gupta on Tuesday inaugurated a new school building block at a Sarvodaya Vidyalaya in Mansarovar Garden and said her Government is committed to improving infrastructure and learning facilities in schools.

The chief minister also inaugurated the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) Laboratory in Mansarovar and a District Institute of Education and Training at Dilshad Garden. Cabinet Minister Ashish Sood, MLA Harish Khurana, and several other dignitaries were present at the programme. Speaking on the occasion, she said the BJP dispensation aims to make schools under the Delhi Government a preferred choice for parents, on par with or better than private institutions in terms of quality, facilities and infrastructure.

She said real success in the education sector would be achieved when parents themselves choose Government schools for their children. The Chief Minister said that the Government aims to make Delhi the state with the highest number of smart classrooms, computer labs, language labs, modern sports facilities, and robust educational infrastructure in the country. Alongside academics, focused attention is also being given to sports and nutrition. The chief minister also acknowledged the role of public-private partnerships, including support from the Ladi Foundation and the American India Foundation (AIF), in strengthening digital education.

A total of 101 computer labs have been set up in Government schools through such collaborations, with more than 2,000 computers provided so far, she added. At Sarvodaya Vidyalaya, Mansarovar Garden, the Chief Minister inaugurated a newly constructed ground-plus-three-storey school building comprising 29 classrooms, developed in accordance with modern standards and academic requirements. Similarly, a new ground-plus-three-storey building was inaugurated at the DIET campus, Dilshad Garden.

The facility includes 19 classrooms and is equipped with modern amenities to support teacher training and educational innovation.

Education Minister Ashish Sood said meaningful change in education is reflected in classrooms and laboratories rather than publicity campaigns. The Government was prioritising spending on school infrastructure, including classrooms and ICT facilities, to bridge the digital divide among students, he said. Sood said access to computers and technology-enabled learning was crucial as most competitive examinations are now computer-based.

The Education Minister informed that more than 7,000 new computers have been provided to Delhi Government schools in less than a year. Tenders for 7,000 smart blackboards have been completed. In the next four years, smart boards will be installed in 21,000 classrooms from Classes 9 to 12, with a five-year maintenance guarantee.

Govt launches 10-day Vasantotsav 2026 cultural series

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE
■ New Delhi

The Delhi Government on Tuesday inaugurated a ten-day cultural series titled Vasantotsav 2026 - Bhajan Clubbing. The initiative aimed at connecting young people with India's spiritual and cultural traditions through contemporary musical expression.

Chief Minister Rekha Gupta launched the programme at Ramjas College, University of Delhi, marking the beginning of events to be held across multiple Delhi University campuses till February 19.

The Chief Minister described "Bhajan Clubbing" as an innovative platform that blends devotion, culture, and youthful energy. She said the initiative reflects a growing cultural consciousness among young people and offers a modern format to experience bhajans and kirtans without losing their spiritual essence. The launch event featured a devotional performance by Leela Band, which drew participation from students as well as dignitaries present at the venue.

The Chief Minister said bhajans and kirtans form the soul of Indian cultural life, and initiatives such as Bhajan Clubbing help reinterpret traditions for younger audiences.

According to her, Delhi is witnessing a rare confluence of devotion and modern expression, where spirituality is being experienced in a new and accessible form.

Art, Culture, Language, and Tourism Minister Kapil Mishra, who was also present at the event, said the Delhi Government is committed to making the capital a centre of cultural and artistic activity.

He said Bhajan Clubbing represents a youth-centric cultural movement inspired by the tradition of bhajans to preserve and celebrate India's heritage while actively involving young citizens.

Govt shuts down DFC lending agency over mounting losses

■ New Delhi

The Delhi Government has shut down its lending agency Delhi Financial Corporation (DFC) due to mounting losses, and formed a nine-member committee to complete its winding up.

The winding up of the DFC was notified by the finance department on February 6. The decision to shut the entity was taken in a Cabinet meeting last month, chaired by Delhi Chief Minister Rekha Gupta, official said.

The "acute financial constraints" faced by the DFC, which provided loans to medium, small and micro projects, were flagged in a meeting of its board members in November last year.

The board was apprised that the share capital of DFC had been eroded and the losses accumulated to the tune of ₹42 crore. It was also not in a position to repay the total outstanding loan of ₹80 crore it owed to the Delhi Government as of September 2025.

Further, the corporation's entire capital base and reserves were completely eroded, and its net worth showed a negative growth of ₹15 crore, official documents showed. In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951, and all other powers enabling in this behalf, the Lieutenant Governor of the National Capital Territory of Delhi has ordered winding up of the DFC, the finance department said.

"The DFC will stand wound up with effect from the date of publication of this Notification (February 6, 2026) in the Official Gazette," the notification read. All operations of the corporation, including sanction of fresh loans, stand ceased, it said.

PWD orders safety checks after Janakpuri tragedy

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE
■ New Delhi

The Public Works Department (PWD) has issued fresh directives on Tuesday to carry out safety inspections of flyovers, underpasses, roadside drains and streetlights following the death of a man who fell into a pit dug in Janakpuri for works. It must be properly barricaded at all times during the day, and at night, the order said. "Install adequate reflector sign, warning boards, blinkers and caution tapes as per prescribed safety norms. No trench, pit, or excavated portion of the road shall be left open without proper protection under any circumstances," the PWD said.

Regular night inspections must be carried out, particularly at sharp curves, junctions, medians, pedestrian crossings, bus stops, flyovers, underpasses, and other accident-prone locations, it added. The order follows directions issued by the Delhi Chief Secretary Rajeev Verma earlier.

Daytime inspections will assess the physical condition of poles, wiring, earthing, and foundations, the official order further said. "Any flickering, dim, or partially functional lights are to be treated as defective and repaired immediately, with temporary lighting arrangements provided if required," the PWD said.

Woman shot dead at home in Jungpura, son arrested

ABHINAV KUMAR JHA
■ New Delhi

A 37-year-old woman was shot dead inside her home in Delhi's Jungpura area late Monday night. According to the police, the woman died due to an accidental firing involving her own son. The victim, identified as Sumati, was brought dead to Moolchand Hospital with a gunshot wound to her face. Police investigations revealed that the shot was fired by Sumati's 18-year-old son, Tarun, who has been arrested. The police said that a PCR call regarding the incident was received at around 10:39 pm on Monday at the Lalpur Nagar police station. Subsequent inquiry traced the place of occurrence to Pant Nagar, Jungpura, falling under the jurisdiction of Hazrat Nizamuddin police station. According to senior police officers, the incident happened inside the family's house in the J cluster, where Sumati lived with her husband and children. Earlier that evening, Tarun had allegedly procured an illegal country-made pistol from an unidentified person in the Ashram area. Later that night, while handling the firearm inside the house, he began showing it to his mother. During the demonstration, the pistol accidentally discharged, and the bullet struck Sumati in the face, causing fatal injuries.

"The accused has disclosed that the firing was unintentional and occurred while he was showing the pistol to his mother," a senior police officer said. "There was no previous enmity or domestic dispute reported. Prima facie, it appears to be a case of reckless handling of an illegal firearm."
